The bark Palmetto, Capt. Anderson, of the Russian Telegraph expedition, arrived from Plover Bay on the Coast of Asia on Sunday evening; by this arrival we have late news of the progress of the telegraph expedition.

Col. Brekely and party arrived at Plover's Bay in September, having sounded across BehringsStraits with the steamer Geo. H. Wright. The bottom of the Straits was found quite as favorable as indicated for the faying of the cable. THE CHOLERA IN PARIS cable.

Colonel Brekely reports that the river laid down in the map as the Kinchpack is identical with the Yankeen, and is navigable for small steamers as far as English Fork. Mr. Kennicutt with a party sent to explore the Yonson to New Westminister, British Columbia, was left at Fort St. Michaels. They will go up the Yonson and Kinchpack in a small steamer, the Lizzie Homes, which is but thirty-five feet long. They will proceed to the head of navigation and then across Mt. Reindeer on foot over the snow, until they strike the settlements in British Columbia. Col. Brekely's party found the earth on the American side thawed to an average depth of ten-inches, but frozen solid below to an unknown depth. On their arrival they found the ground unfavorale for the laying of the cable, as it is shallow and exposed to the Southeast gales. Machigin Bay was found full of ice. Pintman Bay was found onlirely destitute of timber and more monotonous than the American. The ground was found thawed to a depth of thirty inches, and frozen solid below that. When the Palmetto left the northwest wind was bitterly cold and winter was fast approaching.

The barque Golden Gate, which was to return to this port next mouth, will be expected soon.

Arrival of the City of Boston—Death of Lord Palmerston—The London Times' Sensation News—The Cholera in Paris—Deaths Averaging 200 per NEW YORK, Oct. 31.

New York, Oct. 31.

The steamer City of Boston, from Liverpool on the 18th, via Queenstown on the 19th, arrived this morning.

The steamships Movarian, City of Cork and Bavaria had arrived out.

Lord Palmerston is dead.

The steamer United Kingdom, 24 days out from New York, for Glasgow, arrived at Rathmallin with her machinery disabled.

Lord Palmerston had been seriously his slist year on the 20th of October.

The sensation news published by the Times that Mr. Seward recently sent peremptory displatches to France, continues to attract attention, but it was generally regarded as wholly unfounded, and this view was confirmed by the Moravian's news. The Times contends that let this remonstrance be what it may, coolness has recently arisen between France and America.

The Star pronounces the Times' news entirely baseless; a mere absurdity.

The Paris Temps says the deaths from cholera in that city, were averaging 200 per day.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher delivered an address on the beneficial results of the war, though at the sacrifice of life, and enlogized Col. Dahlgren in this connection. NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Herald's dispatch says the action of South Carolina in electing Wade Hampton as Governor; of Georgia, in advocating the payment of the rebel war indebtedness, and of Mississippi in refusing to take up andipass', the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery, is believed to have seriously affected the future policy of the President concerning those States, and to have endangered the admission of their delegates in the next Congress. Had Mississippi cheerfully passed the amendment the general amenety would have been at once declared in favor of all rebels; as it is but few amnesties will, in all probability, be hereafter granted to citizens of these States. The same is true of Georgia and South Carolina, the action of their conventions has not justified Presidential confidence, and rigors of military government and martial law will be the consequence.
